

UserTEC project meeting 10 October

The project meeting takes place at our campus in Copenhagen, AAU-CPH. A.C Meyers Vænge 15, Copenhagen SV.

For direction please have a look at <http://www.en.cph.aau.dk/How+to+get+there/>

We will be in meeting room FKJ 10A 4.133, at the map in the link you can see the building FKJ 10A, the room is at the top in this building. The entrance is between the building FKJ 10A and FKJ 10B, go through the glass-doors and to the right, where you can find an elevator (or stairs) that can bring you to the fourth floor

Program for the meeting:

- |             |  |
|-------------|--|
| 9.30-10     | Arrival and breakfast  |
| 10.00-10.05 | Welcome  |
| 10.05-10.30 | Presentation and discussions of a survey on indoor climate and heat consumption  |
| 10.30-12.00 | Three Danish UserTEC Ph.D. students present their projects, including discussionsPernille Andersen, WP2: The potential role of material objects as communication tools and bridging objects in multi-stakeholder settings.Anders Hansen, WP1: Quantitative analysis of residential energy consumptionLine Madsen, WP1: Qualitative analysis of households' indoor comfort practices |
| 12.00-13.00 | Lunch  |
| 13.00-15.30 | Communication workshops by WP2:"How to talk about technology that Users' understand how to use?"  |
| 15.30-16.00 | Administrative talk, website, next meeting etc.  |

"How to talk about technology that Users' understand how to use?" WP 2: stakeholder workshop no. 1: Pernille and Ellen will present insights from the first round of data-collection, and partners will in groups be invited to choose and comment which insights they find most exciting and useful to keep in the communication toolbox. Since this workshop is part of Pernille's data for her PhD, we will ask for acceptance that the group-work is video-taped, for research purpose only, and not for show in presentations or in papers. For show we, with participants' permission, will take a number of still photos.

Hotel recommendation:

For those of you who will spend a night in Copenhagen and want to stay near our campus we recommend Hotel Scandic Sydhavnen, which is just 5 min. walk away. When doing the reservation give the code from our university which should give you some rebate: D000023757.

<http://www.scandichotels.dk/Hotels/Danmark/Kobenhavn/Scandic-Sydhavnen/>.

UserTEC academic meeting 9 October 12.00-17.00

The day before the project meeting, on October 9 we will have a more academic meeting primarily for the PhD students and their supervisors. We meet at lunch 12.00 and use the afternoon for exchange of project ideas and content with a special focus on methodological and theoretical approaches, as well as discuss ways of organizing the international corporation and PhD exchange. More details will follow when we know how many PhD students and others will attend this day. This meeting takes place at meeting room M6-6.043 in building ACM15.